

CIEH LEVEL 2 AWARD IN HEALTH & SAFETY IN THE WORKPLACE

Who should attend

This accredited qualification developed by the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health will benefit anyone in a work environment as it provides employees with an understanding of health and safety that will enable them to contribute to any risk assessment based health and safety management system.

This qualification will provide your employees, supervisors and managers with fundamental health and safety knowledge. It has been completely revised with new and updated content and is complemented by the Health and Safety Good Practice Guide.

The CIEH Level 2 Award in Health and Safety in the Workplace is accredited by the QCA. This new qualification, which is suitable for all employees, supervisors and managers has been developed to address the revised national occupational standards in health and safety.

The course instructor, a Chartered Safety & Health Practitioner, has an in-depth knowledge of health and safety across a wide range of sectors and uses appropriate examples and references during the training.

Course content

The Level 2 course content includes:

- Introduction to health & safety & safety law
- Risk assessment & accident prevention
- Workplace health, safety & welfare
- Work equipment
- Transport & vehicles
- Hazardous substances
- Electricity & fire safety
- Manual handling & ergonomics
- First-aid
- Noise
- Personal protective equipment

Objectives

- Provides employees with an understanding of the principles of health and safety
- Enables employees to contribute to any health and safety management system
- Develops an understanding of:
 - responsibilities placed on employers and employees
 - hazard, risk and the main causes of harm to workers
 - the importance of following systems, procedures and rules
 - how individual action can reduce risks to health and safety

Course duration and assessment

This 1 day course is assessed by a thirty question multi-choice examination paper. Candidates achieving twenty or more correct answers will be awarded the CIEH Level 2 Award in Health & Safety in the Workplace and a certificate to prove they have participated in an accredited training programme and successfully completed the assessment.