

IOSH: SAFETY, HEALTH & ENVIRONMENT FOR CONSTRUCTION WORKERS

IOSH's one-day, face-to-face Safety, Health and Environment for Construction Workers course provides essential knowledge for anyone who is involved in construction activities. The course provides the core knowledge your workers need to stay safe and embeds the good understanding and techniques needed to keep others safe too.

This course has been approved by CITB and Build UK. It is also approved by CSCS as a health and safety qualification and can be used as part of your application, required to be eligible to apply for the Green Labourer CSCS card - allowing persons to work on construction sites in entry-level positions.

Who the course is for

Anyone who works on or around a construction site or has cause to visit the site in the course of their work.

What the course covers

- Health & safety issues to be managed in the construction industry to protect employees, contractors, neighbours and others
- The basics of local law
- The importance of risk assessments and method statements and the development process
- Site requirements for the welfare of construction workers on site
- Hazards & controls associated with construction sites and activities including working at height and confined spaces
- Site environmental management including management of waste and ecology

What employers will get

- Globally-recognised & respected certificated training for their workers
- Peace of mind offered by training that's designed by the Chartered body for safety & health professionals
- A course that can be delivered in time-slots that suit your business
- Fewer hours lost due to sickness & accidents, resulting in greater productivity
- Improved, company-wide safety awareness culture & appreciation for safety measures
- Proactive staff involvement to improve the workplace

Assessment and Certification:

The course assessment consists of a 30 minute closed-book, multi-format question paper. Successful delegates are awarded an IOSH Safety, Health and Environment for Construction Workers Certificate.
